

Te.D. – Teatro d'Impresa® design and perform innovative Edutainment Format engaging, aggregating and motivating dedicated to Conventions, Meetings and Events.

Our specialty is to combine perfectly what is "educational" and entertainment; it plays a Corporate Communications made more effective by a highly value-added training.

Our format is always realized for each single business context; it is effective for active learning, fun and playful and facilitates new discoveries, experiment and training of new skills, as well as relationship with others and team building.

It is also a perfect tool for emotional communication and for the promotion of products and services; it creates an event that facilitates collective reflection and awareness, activating a circular communication to penetrate into the organization's DNA and people.

Te.D. – Teatro d'Impresa® - Consulting Services, Communication and Training to Companies - represents excellence in the field since 1999.
